ARTICLE 3: TENURE AND TERMINATION

- 3.1 The MoU shall come into force immediately upon its signing by the parties and shall remain in force for an initial period of five (5) years from the date of its signing.
- 3.2 The Parties may further extend the MOU on the mutually agreed terms and with mutual written consent.
- 3.3 This MoU may be terminated by mutual consent of the parties before its normal tenure of five (5) years by giving advance notice of one(1) month without jeopardizing the ongoing collaborative activities, and MoU will be deemed terminated on the expiry of one month time given in notice.

ARTICLE 4: FORCE MAJEURE

- 4.1 Neither Party shall be liable for any failure to perform, any of its obligations under this MoU if the performance is prevented, hindered or delayed by a Force Majeure event (defined below) and in such case its obligations shall be suspended for so long as the Force Majeure Event continues.
- 4.2 "Force Majeure Event" means an event which is beyond the reasonable control of the Parties concerned, including, without limitation, unavailability of any communication system, sabotage, fire, flood, explosion, acts of God, civil commotion, strikes or industrial action of any kind, riots, insurrection, war or acts of government, pandemic, epidemic etc.

ARTICLE 5: LICENSE AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Parties have intellectual property rights over their trade names, corporate signs, logos, software and such other proprietary information and know-how which they may come across through this MOU. The Parties shall recognize each other's intellectual property rights for all purposes.

5.2 Nothing in this MoU shall confer on one Party any right or title in the intellectual property of the other Party.

5.3 No license is automatically granted under this MoU to any person to access the places or tangible or intangible property of the other Party either expressly or by implication or otherwise. Both Parties understand and acknowledge that grant of any such license shall always be on case to case basis and shall be expressed in writing.

5.4 Both Parties will take all necessary steps to protect the intellectual properties generated during the process or shared by the parties.

5.5 Rights regarding joint publications, joint patents, royalty, ownership of software/design/product developed etc. under the scope of this MOU, shall be decided by the two parties by mutual consent.

ARTICLE 6: FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS AND REVENUE SHARING

6.1 The financial arrangements, wherever involved, to carry out the activities under the areas of collaboration such as Projects, Programs, Conferences, Seminars, Workshops and the like, will be decided and approved after mutual consent of both Parties and shall be agreed to for each activity individually.

ARTICLE 7: NON EXCLUSIVITY

7.1 The Parties acknowledge and agree that the areas of collaboration under this MoU are being undertaken on a non-exclusive basis and either Party shall be free to enter into or consummate transactions similar to the areas of collaboration with other parties in India or elsewhere.

7.2 This MoU does not restrain or preclude parties from entering into similar MoUs with any other organization during currency or the extended currency of this MoU.

ARTICLE 8: AMENDMENTS

8.1 No alterations, additions or modification of this MoU shall be valid and binding unless the same are reduced to writing and signed by competent authorities of both the Parties.

ARTICLE 9: CONFIDENTIALITY

9.1 This MoU and all "confidential information" exchanged between the Parties pursuant to this MoU shall be held in confidence. "Confidential Information" means:

9.1.1 Information in tangible form that bears a Confidentiality Legend such as Confidential/ Restricted/ Secret etc.

9.1.2 Information in tangible form that does not bears any Confidentiality Legend; however, the receiving party knew, or reasonably should have known under the circumstances, that the information was confidential and had been communicated to it in confidence.

ARTICLE 10: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- Any issues that are not addressed or stipulated in the MoU shall be discussed and resolved through negotiation in good faith and such resolution will be incorporated as written amendments to the MoU by mutual agreement between two Parties.
- No disputes are foreseen in the implementation of the MoU. The two Parties, however, agree that if any dispute arises between them, efforts will be made to settle the same as amicably as possible. If the dispute still remains unsettled, it will be referred for resolution bilaterally to Vice Chancellors of both the parties. The decisions so arrived at shall be final and binding on the parties to this MoU.

This MOU has been executed in two originals, one of which has been retained by the First party and the other by the Second party)

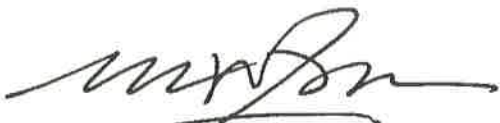

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this MOU and represent that they approve, accept and agree to terms contained herein.
